

Four sonnets

18

where the ideological eunuchs flutter & flare taking the 5th with their clashing flashing eyes lies & hypocrisy rise to the highest level with freight loads of vanity enough to sink the ship woe unto those responsible for notorious outbreaks as the heat starts rising when the detractors pounce fake mirth levels immediately go up & stay viral when unforeseen events of human mixing may not match intelligence is best drawn to that which is not said pay attention when the unspoken indicators line up rounding up opinions for execution can be alarming the right to insult is not and should not be socially free ie moral considerations should not have barren progeny as the integrity of the subjective demands an ethical arc

is a CONTAGION OF BICKERS a symptom of how delusion arises in the minds of those blinded by too much of their own certainty given they confound effects with causes?

political entropy swinging like saloon doors uncoordinated diplomatic mayhem abounds speeches sounding like shoveled dark matter slo-mo moments done by contentious fiasco spineless wonders devoid of anything ethical words said to the right, acts done by left step the hypocrisy enough to infuriate a Redeemer their elitist cultural illiteracy proudly voiced fake lives full of throttle and throwaway shots always on track to really lose big more time presenting freshly hog-tied wingnut ideas as CONVULSIVE ARTIFICE is done for show giving better credence is out of the question as hard core cracks show up in the flummox the candidates wear manly shades of nada mental pulsions are seemingly not propelled transparent truther schemes gaslight further malevolent exhaust which lethally chokes us three days from shutdown & everyone freaks the irony of political book value is less the loss & the only culture around here is a bacterial one trading barbs of a sharply ridiculous rhetoric further corrupts an already depressed public only fueling the Zeitgeist one big lie at a time

65

they who suck big time on their neutrino lollipops are questionably part of braking the breaking news selective perception gaps fuel the dehydrated minds versions of ruckus roil & RUMBLE THE UMBRA the national debt fetish has no redemption elite failures with high credibility burn rates leaving a tenuous future abandoned & wet by generating bogus games against humanity fraudsters gush to the left and to the right as the long suffering minions lobby the Deity when they wrongly get fired for being under fire rough contempt goes suing for more attention by heinously profiting from the dire mire while gunning for deals beyond all this dark insanity
