Grownup poems conk
out in contact with grammar's bain-marie

The haze extracts
adoptive tastes
and sermonettes
for timely activation

Walk-throughs don't hurt lefties either

each mellows
at his own
ombre hallelujah

each orders
a neroli epidural

and the chosen
mnemonic drains
our smartest acne
of its tinsel
so tighty or loosey doesn't come to be about you

The optimal lozenge      opts-out    of throat's continuum

Apart from vowels

no appendage can      backstitch a futurist curve onto twenty's best body      let alone a honeymoon to which

bastard writers

take canapés

Voices pour      from frayed lesions

Think of grapes

No one can think of grapes and be afraid

For all its rich paternity the carbon tidbit      alleges ripeness

when pressed
